1. UNIVERSITY-WIDE QUESTIONS:

^{1.9)} COMMENTS ABOUT THE COURSE

- Great course very eye opening and informational! Loved this course from start to end and can't believe its already over. There is a lot of work involved so you really have to have a good start, understand and have an open mind, be at class almost everyday, and off coarse have good time management because we are given quite a bundle of work towards the end of the course. All of the subject matter was relevant to the course and covered major topics on Islamic Philosophy that I had never learned other wise. The legacies of the muslim philosophers and so on. The emphasis on Morality and justice was a big part of the course as well as us human beings in relation to the world and creation as being One and the Same. Great course !
- I've learned more about islam then i have in 26 years, just in this one course. the course is interesting and opens you eyes to the world and the knowledge that every religion offers.
- Not much Islamic philosophy was discussed. Discussions were rarely based on readings and revolved more around what's right and wrong. Not much objective material was presented.
- This class was very eye opening to me since the professor is very open minded. He teaches you the truth about Islam. very good professor
- course is interesting and I learned a lot
- good course

^{1.10)} COMMENTS ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR.

- Can be a bit biased. Would have liked to see more objective Islamic philosophy presented and allowed for the class to engage in discussion.
- Dr. Younos is a genuine instructor he is very kind, and understanding, and very passionate about the course, his opinions, his students opinions even if we disagree with his opinions he invites disagreement and discussion and further reasoning on any subject matter we are covering. He is a great person I learned a lot about him, in connections o Islamic Philosophy. He is very understanding on due dates on assignments and just made sure that all of his students turned in whatever that was not submitted on the last day of class.
- Learned a lot about the subject.
- instructor is clear and fair
- perfect
- professor younus, what a great professor i have yet to meet a professor that want to encourage his students to succeed and doesn't let one bad grade from a test discourage you to have a chance of still passing the course with a good grade. this shows the passion that dr. yuonus has for his student and sees that the student is trying, usually with professors at the university they only care about what they get on the test but doesn't acknowledge the knowledge that the student as learned in the course.
- very good professor. Teaches you the truth about Islam. provides supporting evidence to prove that Islam is not exactly what society makes it seems like

^{1.11)} OTHER COMMENTS
