

Afghanistan Freedom Movement (AFM)

Founded May 25, 2022

Goals and Objectives

Afghanistan Freedom Movement (AFM) wants a free, neutral and non-aligned Afghanistan. To this end, AFM asks the international community embodied in the United Nations to hold an international peace conference on Afghanistan.

AFM is against Islamic radicalism, tribalism, misogyny, child labor and marriage of the minors.

AFM wants to establish an Islamic democracy in which the government will not impose religion on the people. The purpose of an Islamic government is to establish peace and security and tranquility by establishing civic laws, strong economic agenda to create jobs and fight poverty, and to promote national education.

AFM will not compromise the freedom, dignity and integrity of the Afghan nation under the name of religion. Religion in an Islamic democracy is a personal choice. AFM will establish mutual relation with all nations.

AFM wants Afghanistan to be an active member of the United Nations to promote peace and security in the region.

AFM will end all political problems with the neighbors of Afghanistan and establish economic and cultural relations based on mutual cooperation.

AFM wants Afghanistan to be like the Switzerland of Asia and become a role model for diversity, economic propensity and multiculturalism in the region.

AFM strongly believes that no man has claim of superiority over a woman and no woman has claim of superiority over a man.

AFM wants equal opportunity for both genders in all arenas. Men and women complement each other according to Islam.

AFM believes that all religious denominations are equal before the law and no denomination is in majority or minority.

AFM believes that all ethnic groups are equal before the law and no ethnic group is in majority or minority.

AFM believes in federal governance structure given multicultural character of Afghanistan population.

AFM promotes citizenship and all citizens shall be equal before the law.

Farid Younos

Founder of AFM and author of Islamic Democracy

Email: Farid.younos@yahoo.com

Phone, text & message: 925-203-035