

27 May 2024

Dear Farid Younos

We hope this letter finds you well. It is with great pleasure that the Lajivard Yolu Research and Policy Centre (LYRPC) invites you to the upcoming 2024 Doha Process Evaluation Conference, which will be held in Ankara-Türkiye on 06 and 07 June 2024.

We would be honored if you could join us for a panel discussion on “Critical Analysis of the Doha Process”.

“Doha Meetings” are considered the most important international trend regarding the current crisis and lack of peace and stability in Afghanistan. The Doha Agreement has been considered a core element of political change in Afghanistan- October 2021. The continuation of the Doha meetings under the leadership of the United Nations has become a turning point in recent years, and Doha is a place where the Taliban, representatives of regional countries and international organizations, and representatives of the Afghan civil society were supposed to discuss the issue together. Meanwhile, these meetings followed with unclear results and until now and failed to draw a road map for Afghanistan's future.

Continuation of the Doha meetings under UN leadership, and its shortcomings need to be assessed through academic and political debates. As well as to expand the umbrella of the Doha meeting first there is a need for a meeting of politicians, academics, and civil society stakeholders.

Doha process needs to be more inclusive and representative of different groups including different ethnic, linguistic, and political groups. LYRPC intends to hold

